Hunt for attacker after sex assault

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TWO young girls were subjected to a frightening ordeal after being grabbed from behind by a daring daytime sex attacker.

One ran away, but her friend was pulled into the bushes by the man, who then seriously sexually assaulted her.

The girls, both 12, were walking along Haverhill's old railway line last Thursday after visiting the town centre. At around 1.50pm they passed a man sitting on a bench near Dove House Road. They continued to walk towards Arrendene Road. As they approached the bridge, near Water's Edge, the man walked past them, heading towards the town centre.

Moments later both girls were grabbed from behind – one managed to free herself and alerted police but the other was pulled into bushes and sexually assaulted. She pushed the man away and he ran off towards newly-built flats in the area.

The two girls have been offered counselling following the ordeal.

Police have released an e-fit, above, of the suspect they wish to trace.

A 24-year-old man arrested on Tuesday on suspicion of sexual assault has been released without charge and has been eliminated from police inquiries.

Gardeners' bloomin' great appeal effort

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

ANOTHER £500 has been handed over to the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal this week thanks to more generous support from local people.

A £300 cheque was this week presented to Ian Norris, fundraiser for the hospice, by Valerie Morton, of the Haverhill in Bloom Committee, and Rhodri Rees, a partner at solicitors Adams Harrison, who made a donation to support the committee's Haverhill Open Gardens afternoon on July 6.

The money was raised despite torrential rain on the day, when a total of 16 gardens in the town were open to visitors.

A jazz band and refreshments were also on offer at the starting point at the Old Independent Church in Hamlet Road.

It was the second year the open gardens day event had been organised by Haverhill in Bloom.

There are plans to make it even better next year and to move it forward a month from July to June.

The money will go towards our bid to raise £40,000 to pay for people in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes, instead of having to travel to the hospice in Bury St Edmunds.

Tom Harrison, of Adams Harrison, said the company was a firm supporter of the hospice, already running a Wills Week event each year, in which it draws up free wills for clients in exchange for a donation to the hospice.

He said: "The Hospice does an excellent job and we are happy to support the appeal."

Ian Norris, who attended the open gardens event, said he was very grateful to receive the money.

He said: "Despite the weather it was a remarkably good event and I think it is a massive credit to all involved."

"They did very well to raise anything at all on such an awful day and we are very grateful to them."

"Hopefully they will get better weather for the next one."

■ Mr Norris joined staff from the Haverhill St Nicholas Hospice shop on Sunday when they held a bottle stall at the Big Bash on Haverhill Recreation Ground, where local charities are given the opportunity to run fundraising events.

They raised £200 for the appeal and received plenty of support from those visiting the stall.

■ Don't forget, if you would like to donate proceeds from an event this summer to the appeal, we will help to publicise it in return. Anything from cake stalls to sponsored barbecues and fun day events will help us reach the target.

Tell us of any events or fundraising plans on (01440) 703891 or email editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews

Three years for hair pull man

A HAVERHILL man convicted of an attack in which his partner was pulled backwards down a flight of stairs by her hair has been jailed for three years.

Luke Thompson, 27, had denied inflicting actual bodily harm on Keron Wells at the house they shared in the town's Quendon Place, Haverhill, but the jury returned a guilty verdict.

His case was adjourned for sentence until Wednesday, when Judge Neil McKittrick, who had presided over Thompson's trial at Ipswich Crown Court imposed a prison sentence of three years, to run concurrently with time he had served in custody since his trial.

The court heard at his trial that Thompson, now of Cangle Junction, Haverhill, had two previous convictions for assault, both involving disturbances outside a public house.

During the trial the jury heard Thompson claim that he had never intended to harm Ms Wells and had only been trying to grab a pair of scissors with which she had threatened to shred his clothes.

But giving evidence, Ms Wells said he had been acting aggressively when he arrived at the house on the morning of November 18 last year after she told him he could not take their two-year-old daughter out.

Ms Wells said that as she tried to go upstairs Thompson had pulled her backwards by her hair. She fell and struck her head on a table, suffering a broken nose and concussion.

'No tolerance' in town drugs raids

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

POLICE teams smashed their way into the homes of suspected drug dealers and users last Friday in a bid to crackdown on those involved in dealing drugs and associated crimes.

A day of action was launched across Haverhill as Operation Hickory got under way with a total of eight search warrants executed at addresses across the town.

Suffolk police also used an automated number plated recognition (ANPR) system to detect vehicles used in crime or without insurance and a passive drugs dog patrolled the town in the evening.

The Weekly News accompanied officers on raids at Willow Close and flats off Ashley Close, where officers carried out extensive searches of the premises. Members of the public passing by were supportive of their actions.

Inspector Andy Smith, Haverhill's sector commander for the past two months, hoped the operation would send out a clear message that those involved in dealing drugs and those committing crimes to fund drug taking would be targeted.

Inspector Smith said: "We really want to clamp down on this and make people aware that we will not tolerate drug dealing or any associated criminality."

"Haverhill does have a serious acquisition crime problem and a lot of that crime is committed to pay for drugs. This day of action will obviously assist in cutting this down and I will be doing it again in future as often as I feel is necessary.

"It is not just about arresting people, we will also be offering these people help from the drug and alcohol team.

"We also need the help of the public to tell us who is dealing in drugs and also where stolen items are being sold.

"That action will be acted upon quickly and we want to make life as difficult as possible for those dealing drugs in our town."

Sergeant Simon Hobson, heading the ANPR interception team, said within the first hour of operation, one driver had been arrested for possession of drugs and another driver was found who police had wanted to interview.

He said: "We are here all day and we aim to deny criminals the use of the road. There are not many burglars who catch a bus and often their vehicles are not insured or taxed.

"By taking that vehicle away from the offender we can often stop their criminal activity if they cannot drive."

Search goes on for sex attacker

The offender is described as a white male, in his 20s or 30s, with short dark hair and was wearing sunglasses, blue jeans, a white t-shirt and trainers.

Detective Inspector Martin Wright, who is leading the investigation, said: "Officers have carried out house-to-house inquiries in the area, and will be identifying and viewing any CCTV from the girls' route into town and back again."

"Both girls have been spoken to and are receiving any help they may need after this frightening ordeal."

"I want to hear from anyone who was using the old railway line between Wrattling Road and Arrandene Road between 1pm and 2.30pm on Thursday afternoon."

"It is a popular route into the town centre from the north of Haverhill, so several people may have passed the girls or the offender. Even if you were walking or cycling along the line and don't think you saw anything, please come forward – you can help piece together what happened."

Anyone with information should call Suffolk Police on (01473) 613500 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Upgrades on way, 'but not until next year'

TOWN councillors were disappointed to learn that most of the measures proposed to improve safety on the notorious A1307 road leading into Haverhill will not be completed until before April 2009 at the earliest.

Richard Preston, head of network management for Cambridgeshire County Council, attended a meeting of Haverhill Town Council on Tuesday to discuss safety issues regarding the road.

Mr Prescott told councillors that an emergency meeting had been held after the latest fatalities on the road, where a father and two teenage sons were killed and another five people seriously injured.

As a result, the road would be given the highest priority when changes to speed limits across the county are introduced, with sections being reduced from 60mph to 50mph.

A further bid would be made in the autumn to fund extra speed reductions, and a road casualty sign – showing drivers the number of people killed on the road – is set to go up in September.

Local signage would also be improved at Abington and work to create a right turn lane and a central island at Cardinals Green is due to start in November.

A road safety campaign is also planned and councillors asked that Cambridgeshire liaise with Suffolk authorities to bring this to Haverhill.

Cllr Margaret Marks asked why some of the junctions on the road could not be closed.

Mr Prescott said this option would be opposed by villagers who then suffer from extra traffic passing through their villages.

Cllr Maureen Byrne said she was concerned about the length of time it would take for these measures to come into force.

Flying high to grant wishes

THE sky will be filled with hundreds of balloons when they are released from a pub on August Bank Holiday Monday.

The Haver Arms Harvester, in Haverhill Business Park, is organising the charity event for the Make-A-Wish Foundation UK, and will be selling race cards for balloons over the next six weeks before they are released on Monday, August 25.

The owner of the balloon that travels the furthest across the country will be in with a chance of winning a champagne trip for two in a hot air balloon.

Lyndsey Bucknell, manager of the Haver Arms, said: "Make-A-Wish is a really deserving cause and all the team here are aiming to beat last year's total and raise more money than ever before."

"It only costs £1 per balloon and you could win a day out enjoying a luxury flight."

Make-A-Wish grants wishes to children and young people fighting life-threatening illnesses.

Teens sought over damage to vehicle

TWO youths were seen running from the scene after the rear windscreen of a silver Mercedes estate was smashed while it was parked on a driveway.

The damage was caused at Clements Close, Haverhill, at around 11.55pm last Thursday.

The first youth is described as male, white, around 14 or 15 years old, of slim build and wearing a dark hooded top, jeans and white trainers.

The second is described as male, white, around 14 or 15 years old, of slim build and wearing a white tracksuit top and bottoms with stripes on the side and white trainers.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Ian Davies at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Jump for joy, the holidays are here!

SCHOOL is out and there was plenty of free fun in the sun on offer to youngsters who went along to Haverhill's annual Big Day Out.

The recreation ground was crowded on Wednesday with families enjoying the day of free activities for young people, including a range of workshops, as well as advice and information stands.

A chance to scale a climbing wall or to bounce on a bungee trampoline was taken up by youngsters.

The event was organised by Haverhill Town Council, St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Suffolk County Council, Haverhill Volunteer Centre, HAVO and the Haverhill Extended Schools group.

Immigrants pull plug on Fado after complaints

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PORTUGUESE workers enjoying a karaoke party clashed with local residents, who did not appreciate their music.

Residents of Broad Street, Haverhill, said the music coming from the nearby Duda shop, in Withersfield Road, was very loud, and at one point sounded "like someone being strangled".

But the organiser said similar events had been held in other towns with large Portuguese communities without any problems. The event was eventually shut down after neighbours complained about the noise.

Guilherme Rosa – who works for a Portuguese company whose clients are Portuguese immigrants working in the UK – claims the residents were intolerant. He urged local people to join Portuguese and Polish workers at future parties to help them integrate into the local community.

Mr Rosa said: "We set up a sound system to give people a chance to sing their favourite songs. We even had a Fado (traditional Portuguese music where the singer appears to be crying) singer.

"As Duda's shop is so tiny, we had to set up the event in the back garden. It became more like a barbecue, so common in this country in summer times.

"I went into the street for a cigarette and to see if some neighbours would be around to invite them to join our party. I became surprised when a resident came to meet me complaining.

"It seems that the Broad Street citizens have not a broad attitude to the events that the immigrants organise."

One Broad Street resident, who asked not to be named, said it was not the first time that people in the area, including the elderly and people with young babies, had been disturbed by noise from the back of the shop.

She said: "The noise was really, really awful, it sounded as if the lady singing was in pain at one point. It is ridiculous to say we are being racist by complaining, I don't care if they are Portuguese or not, I just don't want to have to listen to loud music like that on a Saturday afternoon.

"It is not suitable for a party like that, they should hire a hall if they want to have a karaoke party, like anyone else would."

Ideas grow in happy land

AN ISLAND of fresh air and fun has been created at a land-locked school. Camps Island is a piece of ground at Castle Camps Primary School which has been adapted for a variety of uses. It includes a plot for growing fruit and vegetables, a pond and a wild area. There are also sections with a story den and seating areas with game boards to keep the youngsters entertained. Kevin Sheehan, headteacher, said: "We found that the children had virtually no idea where the vegetables they ate came from. "The staff and I discussed our concerns and decided to survey all the children, parents and staff to see how they would improve the school grounds. From this a masterplan was drawn up. "This has become Camps Island – named by the children, funded mainly by the friends of the school. It is divided into areas by pathway, each area has a different theme, with some designed by class groups."

Two options on shape of future local government

Sir, Please can I make absolutely clear to anyone interested in the Boundary Committee's review of local government in Suffolk that there are two options to consider. It's important to understand this so we can move the argument about the future of councils on to the important issues. Several people in recent columns have suggested that there is only one option upon which the Boundary Committee will consider views. That is not true. What is true is that Government guidelines only allow for one preferred option to be put forward for public consultation. But the Boundary Committee has made clear it sees "merit" in the proposal for a single council for Suffolk (albeit without Lowestoft). The Boundary Committee has asked Suffolk County Council to co-ordinate producing further detailed information on this option for them, and has made it clear that the public are invited to comment on both proposals. So let me be as clear as I can: there are two options for councils in Suffolk on the table – a two unitary option (an Ipswich and Felixstowe council and a rural Suffolk unitary), and a single unitary Suffolk option. To imply anything else is not only wrong but will mislead people into believing that they have no part to play in the democratic debate on this very important issue.

I believe a single council for Suffolk, instead of our existing eight councils, is best. We need now to encourage a full democratic consultation on the future of services in Suffolk and I would implore everyone to have their say.

Please write to: The Boundary Committee for England, Trevelyan House, Great Peter Street, London, SW1P 2HW or email reviews@boundarycommittee.org.uk

Floral festival a glory to behold

Sir, St Felix Flower Festival was a joy to behold. The talent displayed was outstanding, outshining anything I have seen before. You worked long hours to obtain this degree of perfection. Your patience was remarkable as you tweaked each bloom into the perfect position.

The oasis here at the weekend reminds us of the glory that awaits us in the garden of paradise – where we shall all wander one day.

A wonderful effort. Congratulations to all participants, very well done, I look forward to the next one.

Black Bamboo (Phyllostachys nigra) is an architectural plant that creates a fantastic focal point in your garden. This wonderfully statuesque, Oriental Black Bamboo has arching green canes that turn a lustrous black in their second or third year, while its abundant glossy leaves remain evergreen.

Blueberry 'Top Hat' is a very heavy cropper that can be grown on the balcony just as easily as in the garden. Apart from its ornamental value, this dwarf-variety of the well-known blueberry takes up little space and provides luscious plump fruits packed with vitamins, minerals and antioxidants that ripen from August to September.

Grant to help fund group's royal outing

AN OUTING to Sandringham will be enjoyed by people with limited or no sight, thanks to a donation from their local county councillor. Cllr Tim Marks handed over a cheque for £1,000 from his Locality Fund allowance from Suffolk County Council to the Haverhill Blind and Partially Sighted group at their meeting at the Burton Centre, next to Haverhill Library, last week.

The group provides support for those with problems with their vision, as well as regular outings for them and their carers.

Waste depot to stay clean . . . and green

A NEW "clean, green" depot for council vehicles was due to be officially opened this Friday in Haverhill.

Fifty refuse, cleansing and landscape staff will start work from the new environmentally-friendly base when the depot on Homefield Road, Haverhill opens.

Cllr John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, was set to open the depot, which was built on a brown field site and has been designed to be highly energy-efficient and sustainable to cut energy and carbon emissions.

The new structure features an air source heat pump to warm the building rather than using an oil-fired system, and effective insulation will keep the interior at a comfortable temperature.

A rain water harvester will capture rain to use for washing refuse and street-cleansing vehicles and provide water for sanitary facilities.

The site will also have a new environmental permit to store waste collected by the council so that vehicles will not need to make as many trips to recycling plants or landfill tips.

Peter Stevens, cabinet member responsible for the environment, said: "This building is a perfect example of St Edmundsbury leading the way in west Suffolk in terms of saving energy."

"We are delighted to be opening the new depot to provide better facilities for staff as well as a much more efficient working environment."

The existing council depot off Reeds Lane will be closed and developed as part of the site for the new Tesco supermarket, due to open in Haverhill next year.

Robber owns up

A 35-YEAR-OLD Haverhill man has admitted a robbery from a garage shop in the town last month.

John Moylan, of Pipers Close, Haverhill, appeared at Ipswich Crown Court on Tuesday and pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery from the Jet Garage in Manor Road, on June 26. His case was adjourned for pre-sentence reports to be prepared so that he can be sentenced at a later date.

Staff members at the garage were confronted at around 9.55pm by a man who showed them a gun-shaped object in a plastic bag. He was given a quantity of cash and left.

WIN FREE FRUIT AND VEG FOR A MONTH* WITH ALDI

As the credit crunch continues, more and more shoppers are turning to Aldi, only to discover that as well as incredibly low prices, they are also getting outstanding choice and quality.

Last year, the store on Lordscroft Lane in Haverhill underwent a major extension and refurbishment, which was done due to the increasing number of customers that are choosing to shop there. And who can blame them when Aldi specialises in many areas such as fruit and veg, fine wines, continental meats, flowers and, of course, specials every Thursday and Sunday.

Every month, Aldi promotes its Super 6 – six lines of fruit or veg for a ridiculously low price. Throughout July, for a mere 69p you can pick up 500g white grapes, honeydew melons, three-pack mixed peppers, 750g plums, 1kg new potatoes and 250g aranca vine tomatoes.

But it's not just the price, Aldi has award-winning products such as its Siana Anti-Wrinkle Night Cream at £1.89 – voted best night cream by Channel 4's, How to Look Good Naked, or there's Baked Romagna Pizza, Parmigiano Cheese, Beef Wellington and Chocolate Chip Brioche, which all won prizes in the Grocers Gold awards.

Just in case you need any more convincing as to the quality of Aldi's products, they are giving two lucky Weekly News readers the chance to win free produce for a month! Mind you, with the Aldi Super 6 promotion, you can be confident that you will always be able to eat well and still have change left over to treat yourself to an Aldi special. For information on upcoming specials, just pick up a leaflet in store, or visit www.aldi.co.uk

For your chance to win free produce for a month*, just answer the question:

How much do the Aldi Super 6 produce promotions cost in July?

Send your answers, on the back of an envelope, to: Haverhill Aldi Competition, Haverhill Weekly News, 4 Queen Street, Haverhill, CB9 9EF

Entries close Friday, August 8. The first two correct entries drawn will win the prize. Normal Weekly News competition rules apply.

*The winners will be sent four £30 vouchers that can be redeemed once a week over a four-week period.

We're all invited to mayor's party

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HAVERHILL'S mayor is inviting everyone along to his birthday party – and musicians from around the country have rallied round to join an open air brass concert in his honour.

Cllr Les Ager, who celebrated his 70th birthday this week, has been a member of the award-winning Haverhill Silver Band for 55 years and its conductor for many of them.

On Saturday night Cllr Ager and son Mark will share the baton to conduct a brass concert on Haverhill's market square, with around 50 players joining them from 7pm.

These will include many former band members from over the years who have gone on to continue their musical careers elsewhere, including a member of the Desford Colliery Band, a member of the GUS Band and an assistant conductor with the Scots Guards Band.

Others attending are from closer to home, including Clacton, Ipswich, Saffron Walden and Newmarket.

Cllr Ager said Haverhill Lions Club would hold a bucket collection for the Mayor's Charity Fund on the evening and he hoped anyone who was in the town centre would come along and listen.

He said: "The pop concerts on the market square have been very successful and there is a lovely atmosphere, and I thought during my year of office we could do a brass one.

"We have got a variety of music with something for everyone, from Queen's Bohemian Rhapsody to West Side Story, Gershwin and finishing with the 1812 Overture. It should be a good night and I am hoping that some people who would not normally come to a concert will come along."

In the event of bad weather the event will take place in the Old Independent Church in Hamlet Road.

Young 'graduates' ready for 'big school'

■ STYLISH EXIT . . . Ben Whitewood, left, and Adam Bareham, both four, are applauded by fellow playgroup members.

Picture: Richard Patterson 499472

TINY "graduates" donned mortar boards and gowns to say goodbye to play group and get ready for "big" school.

A group of 16 "graduates", all aged under five, received their scrolls of honour as they left the Stepping Stones pre-school group at Haverhill last week. A "graduation" ceremony was held at the group's headquarter at Coupals Primary School.

All the youngsters at the group enjoyed an end-of-term party and were also treated to a bouncy castle to play on for the last two days of term.

Elaine McManus, leader of the group, said there were a few tears from children and parents as they said goodbye to the group.

Stepping Stones will be operating for three weeks during the summer holidays and a few places are available for these sessions and for the new term in September. For details contact Elaine on (01440) 761018.

Leave your mark on the digital map

YOUNG people are being invited to help create their own alternative map of their town by attending free media workshops.

CB9 Media Hub is offering youngsters in Haverhill the chance to take part in two weeks of workshops this summer.

The Havebury Housing Partnership and Haverhill Town Council have jointly funded the Snap It, Map It, Blog It project so young people can create an alternative map of Haverhill, which will be added to the CB9 Media Hub website, www.cb9mediahub.org.uk

The map idea will bring participants' favourite or most memorable locations in Haverhill to life via blogs and podcasts.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Those who take part will have the chance to work with media professionals and experienced tutors to explore digital photography and editing, writing blogs and recording and editing podcasts.

Podcast workshops will run at Haverhill Arts Centre next Monday and Tuesday and lessons on photographs and blogs run on August 11, 12 and 13.

Sessions run from 11am-3.30pm each day and are open to 13-19-year-olds who live in the CB9 area. Anyone interested in taking part should contact the arts centre on (01440) 714140 or email projects@cb9mediahub.org.uk

Search for meat thief

POLICE have issued a CCTV image of a woman they want to trace following the theft of a large amount of meat from a supermarket.

The woman, pictured right, was seen taking at least six frozen legs of lamb from the freezer section of the Co-op store in Jubilee Walk, Haverhill between 4.10pm and 4.20pm on Sunday, before leaving without paying. The offender is described as female, white, in her late teens to early 20s, 5ft 4in to 5ft 6in tall, of slim build with light brown hair in a ponytail. She was wearing a red top, blue jeans and carrying a red patterned bag.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Guy Turnbull at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Book plan for young readers

LOCAL residents are being asked to buy books to help raise money for a local primary school.

To celebrate the National Year of Reading, Joanne Brown, a representative for Usborne Books in Haverhill, is launching a community book pledge on behalf of Coupsals Primary School.

Ms Brown aims to collect £1,000 in donations for the school, and Usborne will then provide an additional £600 worth of free books.

She is inviting local businesses and members of the community to make a small donation to buy books for the library at Coupsals. Head teacher at the school, Charles Hardingham, has given the plan his full support.

Ms Brown said: "Over the next few weeks local businesses will be contacted and asked to take part in this very worthy cause."

"At the start of the autumn term the books will be presented to the school. I do hope they will take part in this scheme, which will help raise the literacy standards of our community's next business generation."

Novice goes cross country

A NOVICE cyclist has just completed a sponsored ride of more than 1,000 miles in aid of the hospital where his friend, and fellow cyclist, was treated. Peter Herman, 62, has always been active and enjoys climbing in the Scottish Highlands with his grandson, but had never done any serious cycling before. But he recently made the 1,080-mile trek from Lands End to John O'Groats with Ray Rowan, from Bristol, as well as Mike and Carol Day, from St Albans. Mr Rowan has made a good recovery after receiving treatment for bowel cancer at the Bristol Hospital. Mr Herman and his wife Brenda, from Stoke-by-Claire, met Mr Rowan and the Days five years ago while enjoying a holiday in Spain in their motor homes and the friends have met up frequently since. Mrs Herman said she was very proud of her husband's achievement. She said: "My husband did not train for it, he just got on his bike and went. He even had to borrow the bike because he did not have one that was suitable. They wanted to raise money for the hospital but also to show that you can do things like this after having cancer. People have been very generous in their sponsorship of them."

Top marks for hospital's good grub

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FOOD has been rated "excellent" and standards of cleanliness as "good" for the third year running at West Suffolk Hospital.

The hospital's trust received the ratings following a visit by Patient Environment Action Team (PEAT) assessors. Patient privacy and dignity were also measured, with the hospital scoring another "good" rating.

Chris Bown, chief executive of the trust, said: "All of our staff should be congratulated on their efforts, which have resulted in the hospital achieving yet more positive results in our PEAT assessment."

"The assessment helps give us a snapshot of the standard of care we are providing."

"I'm delighted that our results have remained good for the past three years as it shows we are maintaining our high standards."

"Ensuring that our patients have the best possible experience when they visit West Suffolk Hospital is vitally important to us, so these results are something of which we can be proud."

The PEAT score means the food served up at the hospital, in Bury St

Edmunds, has won top marks for the second time this year.

Earlier in the year, the food was rated as among the best in the country by inpatients questioned as part of a national survey.

The trust also scored well in a recent Healthcare Commission inspection, which concluded that tough national standards on hygiene had been met.

Local Golf Professional Nick Duc is off to pastures new in September, taking up a new position at the Nevill Golf Club, Tunbridge Wells.

Nick has been in the area for over seven years and has described Haverhill Golf Club as "one of the friendliest places I've ever worked."

His work in the community and local schools will be missed, however this is a great career move for Nick who will be relocating to his home county of Sussex.

His re-location sale is being held at the moment with fantastic reductions including, 25% off bags and shoes, minimum 30% off clothing and various deals on clubs. Many designer brands are included in the sale.

Chris Briggs, President of Haverhill Golf Club, said: "He has been of tremendous assistance and great support to all the members of the golf club, especially bringing the juniors along. My favourite memory of Nick is of playing with him at Wentworth when we bumped into Ernie Els and his daughter on the 16th fairway. He is a thoroughly good chap and we wish him all the best in the future, he will be sadly missed."

Banging the drum for dance over summer holidays

YOUNGSTERS are set to take over the Haverhill Arts Centre this week. There's an exciting workshop in association with DanceEast for children aged 10 to 14.

Drum 'n' Dance, a three-day summer school combining the arts of drumming and dance with dancer Holly Stubbings and drummer Mark Trewartha, takes place from next Monday to Wednesday between 10am and 3pm. This workshop is always popular and all that's needed is a packed lunch and loose comfortable clothing. Cinema to look forward to next week includes Superhero Movie (12A), The Edge of Love (15), Speed Racer (PG), The Incredible Hulk (12A), and The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian (PG). Check out next week's Weekly News,

Local focus swings out

FORTY five oil paintings from celebrated British artist Roger Hilton will form the exhibition Swinging Out Into the Void at Kettle's Yard in Cambridge from Saturday. The exhibition focuses on his work during his creative height between 1953 and 1965 when he left London to settle in Cornwall. While many British painters of the era looked across the Atlantic for inspiration, he considered himself very much a European artist and was highly influenced by Mondrian. The exhibition runs until September 21.

Frapp back at Exchange

POP conquerors Goldfrapp have announced a gig in Cambridge to kick off their autumn tour. Fronted by style icon Alison Goldfrapp, they recently performed at the Royal Festival Hall and the Royal Albert Hall complete with orchestra, choir, full band and a surreal dancing troupe. They will be at the Cambridge Corn Exchange on October 23. To book call (01223) 357.

Curious Joan set for star-studded festival

By Nik Shelton

SINGER and songwriter Joan Armatrading will be one of the headliners at this weekend's Cambridge Folk Festival. Also on the main stage at Cherry Hinton Hall will be Judy Collins, The Levellers, Billy Bragg, Eliza Carthy, Seth Lakeman and KD Lang. There will also be a host of world, folk, blues and jazz bands to discover around the festival site over the weekend.

Joan Armatrading will be playing on Sunday night when she will perform songs from her latest album, Into the Blues. The album sees the veteran UK star indulging in her love of blues music and has had critics raving over her expert guitar playing. Born in St Kitts, she moved to Birmingham as a child and soon started playing and performing. In 1972 her debut album was released and set the working model for her career with Armatrading singing, writing the music and playing most of the instruments on the record. She still works in the same way today and it's something which has given her a great deal of control over her music and allowed her a freedom that many artists do not have.

■ HEADLINER... UK legend, Joan Armatrading.

On her last tour, she decided to take time out from travelling and performing around the country to stop off in schools along the way and pass on some advice about making it in the industry. "I did about 15 schools," she says. "It's something I had wanted to do for quite a while and I finally did it on the last tour. I'm very interested in education and I was just curious to know what young people were thinking today."

Naturally, their view of the music industry was very different from the one Armatrading first threw herself into as a young woman in the 70s.

"You've got X Factor - which I love," she admits. "But I was interested in whether the school children these days realised there was more to a career than that."

"The way X Factor works is it puts a whole load of people onto the stage and everybody thinks that unless you are the winner you've had it and you can't go any further."

"I did it more for my own curiosity rather than to be a role model but maybe I'm a bit naive sometimes because at the end they would all crowd round me, ask for my autograph and tell me how much they liked my guitar playing and ask lots of questions, which I wasn't expecting at all."

And what was the most common questions she was asked by the youngsters? "Have you met Michael Jackson?" she laughs. For full details on the Cambridge Folk Festival visit the website at www.cambridgefolkfestival.co.uk

Arranging care for the elderly

AN INCREASING number of people are faced with the task of arranging care and accommodation for elderly relatives – a responsibility which brings with it huge practical as well as emotional demands.

The book Care Options in Retirement, a Which? essential guide, aims to provide relevant information on the many options and complex financial issues surrounding care, such as arranging a trial stay at a care home and how to sell a relative's home. The authors have foundational knowledge in elderly care.

Author Margaret Wallace has worked with the Elderly Accommodation Council since 1998, and also co-authored Choices in Retirement, published in 2006. Philip Spire is the managing director of NHFA Care Fees Advice, and has worked with the FSA on the regulation of financial advice on funding long-term care.

Care Options in Retirement also covers:

- The financial options for meeting care costs
- Benefits and support services for the elderly
- Retirement housing leases and tenancy agreements
- Interpreting a care home's inspection report
- How to make a complaint about a care home.

It also provides guidance on catering for religious or mental health needs. The book is due for release on September 15, priced at £10.99.

Life's Grand from a Voyager

WHETHER transporting the hapless participants in the hit television show The Apprentice, or even your own screaming offspring, Chrysler's Grand Voyager has been a popular choice in the UK of late.

The new model aims to continue this success, with fresh interior and exterior design, updated engines, and added refinement.

Aerodynamic improvements have reduced wind noise, while high-strength and hot-stamped steel makes for improved structural body stiffness to reduce noise, vibration and harshness.

Chassis enhancements include a twist-beam rear axle with coil springs, and front-wheel-drive suspension architecture designed to provide superior stability and ride comfort, and prevent road noise and transmission harshness from invading the cabin.

The 2,776cc four-cylinder turbodiesel engine can get a little rugg when you push it, but it makes for extremely leggy and relaxed cruising, mated to a smooth six-speed automatic transmission.

FIRST DRIVE

Chrysler's latest large family MPV

ADAM SWIFT

Make no mistake, this does feel like a large vehicle on the road, but it handles perfectly adequately and feels composed at speed. Steering is sharp enough and even provides some proper feedback, while body roll is kept well in check.

And it is these dimensions that make for a people carrier that can accommodate seven people comfortably, and their luggage.

But the Grand Voyager's real party piece is the ingenuity of its seating. With the fancy 'Stow'n Go' system as standard, the rear seats disappear into the floor, transforming it from a comfortable seven-seater into a capacious small van without the hassle of storing the seats elsewhere.

As to be expected from Chrysler, a high spec comes as standard, with a generous helping of airbags, anti-lock brakes with brake assist, ESP, keyless entry with Thatcham Category 1 alarm system, and a tyre pressure monitoring system.

■ THE CHRYSLER GRAND VOYAGER... very well thought out and specified.

Toys include a nine-speaker MP3-compatible stereo with its own hard drive built in to save your favourite music, a trip computer (I did 27mpg on average), cruise control, and a nifty three-zone climate control system

Basically...

The new Grand Voyager is a very well thought out and well specified people carrier that pampers its passengers and, with the inspired Stow'n Go seating system, offers a unique selling point in this class.

The range starts at £25,995, which is decent value too.

THE second series of Fiat's successful and widely acclaimed Grande Punto has just gone on sale in the UK.

The popular supermini, has received a number of significant changes, notably a five year unlimited mileage warranty, Fiat's Blue&Me hands-free entertainment and communications system as standard equipment across the range, the introduction of a new 'GP' version, and the addition of Fiat's 1.4 8v engine to the Active and Dynamic specification cars.

The 1.4 8v engine joins the Grande Punto's current range of 1.4 16v and 1.3 and 1.9 MultiJet turbo diesel engines. The petrol units provide an improvement in performance while maintaining low levels of fuel consumption and emissions.

Another addition is an idea taken from the Grande Punto's stablemate, the 500. Stickers are available for the sides and wing mirrors to help customers personalise their cars.

The revised Fiat Grande Punto is on sale now and costs between £9,200 and £14,325.

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Winter's ton fails to clinch victory

NEIL Winter hit a century but it was not enough to prevent Haverhill losing by three wickets at home to promotion favourites Exning in Division Two of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship on Saturday.

Winter struck 128, with Adam Dellar scoring 39 as the hosts finished with 262 for 8, Chris Lomas taking three wickets.

A fourth-wicket stand of 78 from Richard Ford (88) and Dave Monk (40) set Exning on their way, before David Atkinson made 37.

But despite Dellar claiming 3 for 65, Haverhill dropped eight catches as the visitors came through with 263 for 7.

■ WESTON COLVILLE captain Adie Westley smashed 70 to carry his team to a five-wicket Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts League, Division Two victory over Castor & Ailsworth on Saturday.

Fred Scruby helped himself to 4 for 51 to take out Castor for 179, before Westley racked up his half-century through seven fours and four sixes in a successful response of 184 for 5.

■ HORSEHEATH'S Martin Giles and Alan Ketteridge hit half-centuries to steer their side to a four-wicket Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One success at Fulbourn on Saturday.

The duo registered 87 and 81 respectively as Gary Ellis' men made 257 for 6, despite the best efforts of Ian Still (4 for 43) and Daniel Kindred (2 for 33).

Earlier, Mark Hodgson (56), Daniel Ralph (46 not out) and Kindred (42) helped Fulbourn post 254 for 6, with Martin Towers claiming two wickets.

Ellis sets up 'Heath cup triumph

GARY Ellis smashed a 73 to make sure Horseheath retained the AH Cup for the third season running with a 37-run defeat of Babraham. He was helped by Dan Goldsmith's 44 in a total of 169 for 6 as Babraham dropped several catches and paid the price when they fell short on 132 for 6 with Guy Ennew standing out with 36. However, defending champions Babraham remain in control in Division One after a 65-run win over Hellions Bumpstead. Chris Raynor took three wickets, but Babraham made it to 172 for 6. Raynor and Justin Rose then both hit 27 in Hellions innings of 107 for 7. Sawston put up another big score to see off Ashdon by 66 runs in Division Two.

Adams Harrison Midweek League

Adam Ellis (78) led the way for Sawston with more runs coming from Jason Metson (74) and Martin Heginbotham (49) in a total of 210 for 4. Jamie Millership (26), Will Mallett (33) and Paul Salt (35 not out) then tried their best for Ashdon, who finished on 144 for 5. Hurdon's Rupert Melville-Ross had a good night with a 33 with the bat in a total of 136 for 8 then took three wickets, but his team lost out to Great Yeldham by three wickets as they hit 137 for 7 in Division 3A. Richard Ellis took 4 for 1 for Wrattling Lions who pushed aside wireless Division 3A team Gestingthorpe II by six wickets. Gestingthorpe could only make 59 all out after Ellis was supported by three wickets each from Russell Davis and Kerry Ewens, before Lions replied with 60 for 4. Castle Manor forced Mill Green to postpone their Division 3B title celebrations for another week after securing an 11-run win over the leaders. Carl Bradford top-scored for Manor with 30 in a total of 104 for 5, before Steve Fox took care of business with 5 for 25 to hold the leaders to 93 for 9. Sam Palmer's 33 and Georgina Pittham's three wickets were the difference between Babraham II, who scored 105 for 6, and losing side Abington II, who could only reach 86 for 6 to go down by 19 runs in Division 3B.

Hickstead joy for Jo and her Rising Star

KEDINGTON rider Jo Weekes and her horse Longdean Rising Star won the Dressage Masters Amateur Championship at Hickstead. Weekes, 44, who works full time at Greenwood Ellis and Partners in Newmarket as an equine radiographer, qualified for Hickstead Masters at Medium and Advanced Medium level dressage by winning qualifiers at Sheepgate Equestrian Centre, Boston. Competing against professionals, she achieved high placings in both classes and won the amateur championship at each level. She said of her achievement: "My success goes down to a lot of hard work, juggling work and the horses, the support from my parents, plus being trained by Jill Day, from Haverhill, whose experience and knowledge has helped us progress up the scales of training." After gaining wide experience in eventing, Weekes made the transition to dressage about five years ago. She has owned Longdean Rising Star for two years and is now looking for local sponsorship to help offset the increasing costs of competing at these levels. Anyone who can help, can contact her through Greenwood Ellis and Partners on 01638 663004.

BOWLS

Bottens are on top form as Haverhill chase titles

HAVERHILL'S father and son duo of Steve and Liam Botten had a busy and successful time when the North Essex County Bowls Federation held its finals at Sudbury over the weekend. Steve claimed victory in the two-bowl singles with a 21-18 victory over Cornard's Roy Bareham, while Liam defeated Aaron Phillips (Sudbury) 21-9 in the under-25s' singles. The Bottens also teamed up to score a 21-14 success over Stoke by Clare's Aubrey Chinnery and Steve Laver in the pairs final. Joined by Albert Waters, Steve and Liam also featured in the triples final where they went down 18-14 to a Boxford trio. Liam also played alongside Peggy Mizon in the mixed pairs final, but the Haverhill duo lost out 18-10 to Bridget King and Peter Crisp (Cornard).

Haverhill bowlers were prominent throughout the men's and ladies' finals. Success came the club's way in the ladies' Champion of Champions event, where Stephanie Smith defeated Margaret Thompson (Gramplan) 21-7 in the final. Smith also tasted success in the Secretaries' Singles, where she beat Daphne Clark (Boxford) 21-10 to secure the title.

Tony Freeman, Eric Kiddle and Bob Smith went down 29-8 to a Boxford trio in their two-bowl triples final, while Peggy Mizon lost in the four-wood singles against Bridget King (Cornard). Haverhill's Stephanie Smith, Ethel Parkhurst and Shirley went down 22-15 to a Radwinter team in the two-bowl triples final.

Also a losing finalist was Gramplan's Margaret Thompson, beaten 21-11 by Monica Snook (Boxford).

The same two players also featured in the senior pair, where Snook teamed up with Christa Hills to beat Thompson and Gill Bush 18-12.

All the North Essex champions will now go forward to represent the county at the national finals, to be held in Skegness during the week of August 18-23.

Billings targets poor discipline

■ SCORER ... Paul Jenkin, who was on target in Haverhill 1-1 draw with Halstead.

LARRY Billings has vowed to clamp down on the discipline of his Haverhill players after their 1-1 draw against Halstead at the midway point of their pre-season programme.

After opening their friendlies' campaign with a 1-1 draw against Hundon, they stepped up a gear to beat Hundon 5-3 in the Keith Willis Memorial Cup thanks to a brace from Craig Cutts and one apiece from Marc Abbott, Joe Harvey and Brad Deeks.

So at the halfway stage on Saturday, manager Billings was looking to see a continued development from his team.

Haverhill slipped behind early in the game, but were back on level terms just before half time, when Paul Jenkin struck a half-volley from outside the area.

But both teams were reduced to 10 men after the break, with Haverhill defender Gareth Thomas seeing red for an over reaction to a tackle.

"We had disciplinary issues on Saturday as both sides had a player sent off," said Billings. "There are discipline issues that I've got to address as it's not the way I played, as I never got booked.

"It was a niggly game and could have been regarded as a local derby." However, there were positives for Billings to take from only his third match in charge. "It's probably the best performance of the three," he said.

"The passing was the best of the three and the triangles and two touch that we do in training was applied well."

He added: "These guys are getting used to me and I'm getting used to them."

Rovers continue the build-up to the new Ridoons League, Premier Division campaign with a trip to Brantham Athletic on Saturday and round things off by entertaining Stowupland Falcons on Tuesday evening.

Rovers commence their league fixtures with a visit to last season's runners-up Needham Market on Saturday, August 9, before Mildenhall Town visit the following Tuesday.
